How Arabs Took the Jewish Palestinian Identity and Invented Their National Movement.

For generations, the Arabs of Jewish Palestine denied they had any national identity and that any Palestinian People existed. They rejected the Peel Commission offer of two states. In 1948, the Arabs invaded. Jewish land was stolen—and Arabs voted at the Jericho Conference to be citizens of Jordan. In 1964, with help from the Soviet KGB and escaped Nazis, Arabs expropriated the Palestinian identity. They convinced a world.
